2. Management of various types of degradable and non-degradable waste

Solid Waste Management:

Solid waste includes garbage, rubbish such as paper in classrooms and offices, tin cans. Dustbins are located at different places to collect solid wastes. Bhadgaon Municipal Corporation collects garbage of the campus and takes it away regularly. The NSS units of the college organize cleanliness programs in college premises. The NSS volunteers regularly participate in campus cleaning initiatives. Teaching and non-teaching staff of the concerned department's instruct the students for optimum care to be taken while using hazardous solid chemicals in the practicals.

E-waste management:

The damaged or out-dated computers, CDs and other equipment's are sorted out and few are displayed as models to understand the theory and demo while remaining is sold as scrap to local vendor. However the accessories like keyboards and mouse are the e-waste from the college, which are duly disposed off.

3. Water Conservation:

The major sources of waste water generation in College are wash basins, toilets and science laboratories. The waste water from science laboratories is disposed properly. Liquid wastes generated in the science laboratories are diluted with water & then discharged. The college has designed the outflow of the liquid waste in such a way that it prevents contamination of waste water on the campus. A properly constructed leakage proof sewage system is used for drainage.

Rain water harvesting

As a measure of water conservation, a proper rain water harvesting system has been installed in the main building of the college to channelize the water collected during rainy season. The Department of Chemistry has met with its need of distilled water by storing the rainwater in a tank. The rain water falling on the roof-top is smoothly carried to the tank, where it is stored for being used in practical. The remaining rainwater is harvested in the percolation tank.

4. Green Campus Initiatives

Restricted entry of Automobiles: The “No Vehicle Day” activity is being run by the institute once in a week at Saturday. This activity is adopted by the college staff as well as students and visitors. The reminder notice is being circulated on every Wednesday. All entry points into the campus were closed for vehicles and those who come by vehicles had to park them outside the campus and walk to their department or office. Most of the students of our College come from nearby villages, they use public state transport for daily commute to the college.
