Abstract

My research paper tries to show how there is an impact of globalization on the characters and situation in the novel. The globalization simply means allowing foreign companies to do business beyond their geographical boundaries. The globalization creates an opportunity of employment all over the world. It is very helpful for those hands who do not have work. It is related to many spheres of life such as life style, culture, education, etc. The modern technology also plays a significant role in the world of globalization. The world has become like a family now. We find many foreign companies doing their business beyond their geographical boundaries. There is no restriction in business in this world of globalization.

Keywords:- Globalization , Technology, Employment, language, Culture.

Introduction:-

The White Tiger is the first novel by Aravind Adiga published in 2008. It won the prestigious Man Booker Prize in 2008 also. It is in form of letters addressed to Chinese Premier Wen Jiabao. So it is an epistolary novel.

We find the transformation of Balram Halwai the protagonist of the novel 'The White Tiger' from a school boy to an entrepreneur in this world of globalization. The globalization has deep impacts on the modern man in almost all the spheres of life. Balram Halwai is a modern man. Due to globalization we find the creation of most important thing of life that is employment like
